New but Not...

Greetings! I am so happy to be in Florida where I have many wonderful friends and colleagues who are planning and presenting some pretty incredible programs.

I am anxious to hear about what you all are doing that is out of the box. Please send me an email and let me know. I will be happy to include it in FLYP Forward.

Bring a Museum to Your Library (Through FEL)

CAMIO-Catalog of Art Museum Images Online-contains about 95,000 works of fine and decorative art from leading museums around the world. The scope of the collection ranges from 3000 BCE to the present, representing premiere examples of Asian, African, Latin American and Western art. Difficult-to-find contemporary art is one of its strengths. The content includes high-resolution images of photographs, paintings, sculpture, decorative and utilitarian objects, prints, drawings and watercolors, jewelry and costumes, textiles, books, installations, and architecture-plus audio-video and mixed media. Benefits of the interface include downloading high-resolution images, the ability to email images and metadata for further study, and fast, powerful, Web-based searching.
All content is rights-cleared for educational use.

Innovate and Inspire

Crosswalk Connects Common Core State Standards

The American Association of School Librarians (AASL) has recently published a new tool to demonstrate the school library program's connection to student learning entitled Common Core State Standards Crosswalk. The crosswalk connects the AASL learning standards with the Mathematics Common Core State Standards and is available on the AASL website and as a feature of the Standards for the 21st-Century Learner Lesson Plan Database.

10 of the best Droid Apps for Education in 2012

eSchool News has come up with a new list of the best Droidbased education apps for 2012. This year's list includes some of the most highly rated apps, both by teachers and by students, and features a range that spans from an innovative and hyperlinked dictionary developed by the Cognitive Science Laboratory at Princeton University to an interactive whiteboard app for tablets.

YALSA Releases New Teen Space Guidelines

The Young Adult Library Services Association (YALSA), a division of the American Library Association, published a new set of national guidelines on teen spaces. The Teen Space Guidelines offer library staff a blueprint for creating effective, welcoming spaces for teens in libraries and online using library websites and social media. The guidelines also include

Upcoming Public Library Association Facebook Forum Have Kit, Will Implement-Every Child Ready to Read 2nd Edition is scheduled for Tuesday, August 28, 2012, 2:00-3:00p.m. EDT on www.facebook.com/everychild. The guest speaker is Saroj Ghoting, early literacy consultant.

If you haven't used Every Child Ready to Read (ECRR) yet and need a nudge, or if you have used the kit and want to learn more, join the Facebook conversation! Ask questions, share your ideas, and connect with other libraries about early literacy programming during this one-hour Facebook Forum.

YALSA's Teens Top Ten Voting

The online vote for teens to choose their favorite books from among the Teens Top Ten (TTT) nominees will be open from August 15 through September 15, 2012. Access a free toolkit on how to use the TTT at the library as well as the list of 25 nominees. The winners will be announced during Teen Read Week™.

Out of the Box

Out of the Box is a place where library activities and programs are shared. This month features a very special pet.

"Thought I'd give a shout out about Tucker. Tucker has been volunteering here at St. Pete Beach since summer 2006. He is a large Welsh Springer Spaniel and the gentlest dog ever. Tucker is a trained Therapy Dog from Therapy Dogs International. He began life as a show dog and is quite the champion in that endeavor as well!! When he was about to turn 10 he fathered 5 sons and all came to programs with him that summer! Tucker has just had his 13th birthday -June 22 - and is now visiting the library once a week year-round!"
