E-government news

Future webinars: We need you!

Libraries around the state are taking creative and innovative approaches to serving their communities with e-government services. Chances are high that your library is doing something that another library would love to try, but doesn't know where to start. If your library has excelled in one of the following areas and is willing to participate in a webinar, please contact me at kaycee.shiley@dos.myflorida.com:

- Health and human services.
- Business and employment.
- Citizenship.
- Digital safety.

If there is another library with a program you are interested in learning about, let us know and we can reach out to them!

National Health Education Week

Does your library offer extensive health resources for your patrons? National Health Education Week

Statewide portal for county and local resources, organized by county.

Career and job resources from the Florida Electronic Library.

is October 15-19 and offers an opportunity to highlight what your library provides.

The Florida Electronic Library also has a Body & Mind category that highlights health care and other health-related resources.

Florida Braille and Talking Books Library

Emily Hart, the Equal Access to All Consultant, hosted a webinar with Jim Woolyhand, Bureau Chief of the Braille and Talking Books Library in Daytona Beach. If you were unable to attend, you can view the webinar on our YouTube channel.

For additional resources for patrons who have visual, physical or reading disabilities, please email Emily at emily.hart@dos.myflorida.com.

Algae bloom and red tide

Florida is under a State of Emergency as a result of the algae bloom and red tide in Southwest Florida. For libraries located in these areas, there are online resources that your community members can use to report areas that may need a response from the Florida Department of Environmental Protection. Please share this information with patrons!

Head Start's new website

Head Start has relaunched their website with new resources. Head Start operates throughout the state to provide educational services, including newsletters that might be of interest to you or your Youth Services staff.

Check out the webinar we hosted with the Early Learning Coalition for additional services the Office of Early Learning offers!

Florida elections toolkit

Two new websites recently launched that provide Florida elections information and tools.

YourVoteFlorida.com provides an easy-to-navigate resource for voters to get ready for the election season. The 2018 Voter Education Toolkit offers digital and printable materials, among other tools.
